Add Liber 5–6 page 305. Recorded for Leindert Huygen. On Nov. 1, 1697, Jan Janse van Haerlinge appeared before Mr. Johan Van Strip, Secretary's clerk of Suriname (while Secretary de Graef was absent), and bequeathed to the poor of Paramaribo 50 caroli guilders. The remainder of his estate he leaves to Maerte Wense and his wife, on condition that Maerte Wonsee shall take Jan Janse in his house giving him board and lodging and all needs until his death.

Done at Paramaribo in the presence of Egidius de Hoy and Hend. Schosler. Signed Jan Janse Van Haerlinge, M. Winsie.

Maerten Wersen (the heir of Jan Janse van Harlingen who died in Suriname), appeared before Johannes Van Stripp, Secretary's clerk of Suriname, and declared that Capt. Daniel Eldrige, in Kings Provence of Rochester in Narraganset, had in his charge 125 pieces of eight, received from Willem Janse van Danstick, brother of Jan Janse van Harlingen. He requests Capt. Daniel Eldrige to give the same to Leendert Huygen de Kleyn, who will give a receipt for the money. Dated Paramaribo, May 7. 1699, Witnesses Hendr. Schosler, Bastian de Haer.
